

My email account settings

Account Information
Questions	Answers	Notes
Full name:		Your name as you would like it to appear on messages you send, such as Tom Clark.
My email address:	_____@_____._____	Such as tomclark@example.com
My email provider:		Name of your email service provider such as MobileMe, Yahoo, Gmail, Comcast, AOL, etc.

Incoming (POP or IMAP) mail server settings
Questions	Answers	Notes
Account type: Choose one.	POP <input type="checkbox"/> IMAP <input type="checkbox"/> Exchange IMAP <input type="checkbox"/> Exchange 2007 EWS <input type="checkbox"/> See below for more questions.	Your provider will understand which Account type to select.
Description:		Used to title your inbox in Mail, such as "Tom's email"
Incoming server hostname:		Such as mail.example.com
Username:		Such as tomclark or tomclark@example.com
Password:		Used to protect your email account. See http://support.apple.com/kb/HT1506 for more information.
Incoming server port number: Choose one.	110 <input type="checkbox"/> (POP) 143 <input type="checkbox"/> (IMAP) 993 <input type="checkbox"/> (IMAP with SSL) 995 <input type="checkbox"/> (POP with SSL) Other:	Your provider will understand which port to select.
Incoming server authentication method: Choose one.	Password <input type="checkbox"/> MD5 <input type="checkbox"/> NTLM <input type="checkbox"/> Kerberos <input type="checkbox"/> None <input type="checkbox"/>	Your provider will understand which authentication method to select.
Incoming server supports Secure Sockets Layer (SSL):	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>	Your provider may call this Transport Layer Security (TLS)

Outgoing (SMTP) mail server settings
Questions	Answers	Notes
Outgoing Mail Server:		Such as smtp.example.com
Outgoing server port: Choose one.	25 [] (SMTP) 465 [] (SMTP with SSL) 587 [] (SMTP) Other:	Your provider will understand which port to select.
Outgoing server supports Secure Sockets Layer (SSL):	Yes [] No []	Your provider may call this Transport Layer Security (TLS)
Outgoing server authentication type: Choose one.	Password [] MD5 [] NTLM [] Kerberos [] None []	Your provider will understand which authentication method to select. If " None ", ask for the Internet Service Provider off-network outgoing (SMTP) mail server settings to use when you are connected to the Internet from outside your ISP; for example, a WiFi hotspot at your local coffee shop. Use the next chart to denote these settings.

Internet Service Provider off-network outgoing (SMTP) mail server settings
Note: Only use this section if you checked "None" for Outgoing server authentication in the above section
Questions	Answers	Notes
Outgoing Mail Server:		Such as smtp.example.com
Outgoing server port: Choose one.	25 [] (SMTP) 465 [] (SMTP with SSL) 587 [] (SMTP) Other:	Your provider will understand which port to select.
Outgoing server supports Secure Sockets Layer (SSL):	Yes [] No []	Your provider may call this Transport Layer Security (TLS)
Outgoing server authentication type: Choose one.	Password [] MD5 [] NTLM [] Kerberos []	Your provider will understand which authentication method to select.

Microsoft Exchange 2007 (EWS)-specific questions
Note: Only use this section if you checked "Exchange 2007 EWS" for incoming account type.
For Exchange 2007 (EWS), if auto configuration is not enabled on the server, or if you are not sure, you should ask or know the answers to these questions:
Questions	Answers	Notes
Account name:
Password:
Client Access Server (CAS) name:		Used for the incoming server field.
Ports are used for internal and external servers:		Your Microsoft Exchange 2007 admin will understand which ports.
VPN network access required	Yes [] No []
For information about using an Exchange 2007 account in Mail in Mac OS X v10.6, see this article: http://support.apple.com/kb/HT3748		